

Wasatch Jail Comes Tumbling Down

Aug 15, 1968

TORIC OLD JAIL FALLS— A gaping hole appears in corner of the Wasatch County Jail as county workers prepare to remove the structure from new parking lot area.

POLE IN ROAD— County Commissioner Grant Shelton and Lamar Simpson remove pole which stands in way of demolition process. Gaping hole looms larger as work progresses.